Get Festive

Huntington Heritage Days

Huntington sets aside five days each June to celebrate Heritage Days (pictured top left) with a citywide festival that includes a carnival, hot air balloon launches, car shows, parade, live music, local art, food and more.

JeFFest

The conclusion to Huntington Heritage Days, JeFFest is an annual outdoor art festival held in downtown Huntington that showcases live music and fine art made by local artists of all ages.

Old Fashion Independence Day Celebration

A festive Fourth of July celebration is held annually on the Historic Forks of the Wabash grounds, 3011 W. Park Drive. Celebrate Independence Day with patriotic music, color guard and special speakers.

Huntington County 4-H Fair

The Huntington County Fairgrounds, 631 E. Taylor St., is the site of the annual Huntington County 4-H Fair each July. Enjoy 4-H exhibits, livestock shows, live music, nature programs, kids' activities and great food. Read more at www.huntingtoncountyfairgrounds.com.

Splash on the Wabash

Float down the Wabash River as part of a mid-summer river tubing adventure that's grown to draw visitors from hours away since it started in 2015. Learn more at splashonthewabash2020.splashthat.com.

Pioneer Festival

As autumn begins, the Forks of the Wabash Pioneer Festival (pictured top right) celebrates Indiana life in the early- to mid-1800s. Pioneer Village and Olde Town bring everyday pioneer activities to life with blacksmiths, tradesmen, basket weaving, frontier cooking and unique musical instruments. Crafts, antiques and live entertainment help round out the festivities.

Music in the City

Enjoy downtown Huntington's Summer Concert Series, hosted by the Downtown Business Association each summer. Dates and lineups can be found at www.facebook.com/musicinthecity.info.
